

Interested in Being Part of a Global Team Advancing the IBCLC?

IBLCE Is Seeking a Coordinator for Brazil!

Are you interested in being part of a global team of professionals advancing the IBCLC®, the gold standard in lactation? Are you interested in growing the credential in Brazil? Be part of the IBLCE® network of Coordinators who promote breastfeeding and advance the profession!

The International Board of Lactation Consultant Examiners® is currently seeking expressions of interest from Brazilian IBCLCs who wish to be considered for the role of IBLCE Coordinator.

The individual selected will work closely with, and at the direction of, the Director, Promotion and Advancement for the Americas and Israel and play a key role in promoting the IBCLC and IBLCE.

The candidate for this role is reliable, trustworthy, responsive and committed to the field of lactation consultancy and the IBCLC credential. The successful candidate will enjoy working with people, be proficient in English and Portuguese and have a flexible schedule so as to respond to email and phone inquiries in a timely manner. The Coordinator may be asked to exhibit at conferences or seminars approximately 3 to 5 days a year.

The time required will vary throughout the year but will typically require approximately 5 to 6 hours per month. The successful candidate will have basic administrative skills as well as access to a computer, email and voicemail.

The Coordinator may accept this role outside of her/his regular paid employment provided there is no conflict of interest as determined by IBLCE. The role comes with an annual honorarium as well as reimbursement for reasonable and pre-approved expenses.

The successful applicant for the IBLCE Coordinator for Brazil will be:

- An IBCLC in good standing free from conflict of interest (including not involved in IBCLC examination preparation education).
- Fluent in English.
- Supportive of the IBCLC Code of Professional Conduct.
- Supportive of the International Code of Marketing of Breast-milk Substitutes and subsequent resolutions.
- Professional in interactions with IBLCE stakeholders.
- Timely in response to all inquiries (initial response typically within 48 hours).
- Able to access reliable internet.
- Familiar with IBLCE eligibility and recertification requirements.

- Willing to participate in an orientation process and take direction from the Director, Promotion and Advancement for the Americas and Israel.
-

If you are interested in applying to become the IBLCE Coordinator for Brazil, please email the following items to international@iblce.org. Please enter "Coordinator for Brazil" in the subject line of your email.

- 1. Current CV/résumé
- 2. Cover letter addressing the following questions:
 - What is your professional education?
 - What skills and qualities do you bring to this role?
 - Why would you like to become the IBLCE Coordinator for Brazil?
 - What is your capacity to promote IBLCE and the IBCLC?
(professional association membership, etc)
- 3. Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form

The Expressions of Interest deadline has been extended to March 26th, 2020.