

Code of Professional Conduct for IBCLCs

Effective: November 1, 2011

Updated: September 2015

Supersedes: December 1, 2004 Code of Ethics for IBCLCs

The International Board of Lactation Consultant Examiners® (IBLCE®) is the global authority that certifies practitioners in lactation and breastfeeding care.

IBLCE was founded to protect the health, welfare and safety of the public by providing the internationally recognized measure of knowledge in lactation and breastfeeding care through the IBLCE exam. Successful candidates become International Board Certified Lactation Consultants (IBCLCs).

A crucial part of an IBCLC's duty to protect mothers and children is adherence to the principles and aim of the International Code of Marketing of Breast-milk Substitutes and subsequent relevant World Health Assembly's resolutions.

Preamble

IBLCE endorses the broad human rights principles articulated in numerous international documents affirming that every human being has the right to the highest attainable standard of health. Moreover, IBLCE considers that every mother and every child has the right to breastfeed. Thus, IBLCE encourages IBCLCs to uphold the highest standards of ethical conduct as outlined in:

- United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child
- United Nations Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (Article 12)
- Council of Medical Specialty Societies Code for Interactions with Companies

To guide their professional practice, it is in the best interest of all IBCLCs and the public they serve that there is a Code of Professional Conduct which:

- Informs both IBCLCs and the public of the minimum standards of acceptable conduct;
- Exemplifies the commitment expected of all holders of the IBCLC credential;
- Provides IBCLCs with a framework for carrying out their essential duties;
- Serves as a basis for decisions regarding alleged misconduct.

Definitions and Interpretations

1. For the purposes of this document, the Code of Professional Conduct for IBCLCs will be referred to as the "CPC".

2. IBCLCs will comply fully with the IBLCE Disciplinary Procedures.
3. For the purposes of the CPC, “due diligence” refers to the obligation imposed on IBCLCs to adhere to a standard of reasonable care while performing any acts that could foreseeably harm others.
4. The term “intellectual property” (Principle 2.5) refers to copyrights (which apply to printed or electronic documents, manuscripts, photographs, slides, and illustrations), trademarks, service and certification marks, and patents.
5. The exception to the statement “refrain from revealing any information” (Principle 3.1) means that, to the extent required, IBCLCs may disclose such information to:
 - (a) comply with a law, court or administrative order, or this CPC;
 - (b) protect the client, in consultation with appropriate individuals or entities in a position to take suitable action, when the IBCLC reasonably believes that a client is unable to act adequately in her own and her child’s best interest and there is thus risk of harm;
 - (c) establish a claim or defense on behalf of the IBCLC and the client, or a defense against a criminal charge or civil claim against the IBCLC based upon conduct in which the client was involved; or
 - (d) respond to allegations in any proceeding concerning the services the IBCLC has provided to the client.
6. “Misfeasance” describes an act that is legal but performed improperly, while “malfeasance” describes a wrongful act.
